London: October 1.

The Reply of the States General to the Emperor's Letter incerted in Yesterday's Conrant.

Moft Serene, Sc. W E have receiv'd your Imperial Majesty's Letter of the 16th of last Month, in which we are farply blam'd as if in diffenting from your Imperial Majetty in the Affair of the Election of a Bishop of Munfter we had exceeded the Bounds of Equity and Moderation, by defiring your Imperial Majesty not to bar the Bishop of Paderborn's Election to the Bithoprick of Munfter, but to suffer the Chapter to make use of their Right in electing him or any other We are extremely troubled that because in this Affair we differ in our Sentiments from your Imperial Majesty, we should undeservedly have the Unhappyness to receive so hard an Answer, which we will not attribute to your Imperial Majesty, but to the Count is of those who appear to have very little Affection to our Republick and the common Caule, and to feek industriously to fow Animosity and Diffention between the Confederates; and who not content to fee your Imperial Majesty's Forces diverted by the Troubles of Hungary, endeavour to excite Commotions in other Parts, that they may draw off the Forces of us and our Assessment for the general Good. But we firmly promise our follows from your Imperial Majesty's Pandages, they selves from your Imperial Majesty's Prudence, that for the surure you will not give Ear to such Counsels; and setting a great Value upon your Imperial Majefty's Friendship, we will pass over in Silence the Sharpness of your Style, having Hopes that your Imperial Majefty will no longer oppose the Bishop of Paderborn who is now chosen to the Bishoprick of Muntter, but will approve his Election so canonically and legally made. As for this Affair in it felf, by our former Letter we abundantly fet forth, how much it concern'd us that this Dignity should be conferr'd upon a Person well-affected both to us and to the Common Cause; which concurring in the Bishop of Paderborn, we conceive our Recom-mendation of him was no Injury to another, seeing we left the Chapter intirely free to prefer whom they pleas'd either him or any other Person. Wherefore pleas'd, either him or any other Person. we cannot but be surpriz'd to see our selves reprov'd as if we had intermedled in an Affair that did not belong to us, when your Imperial Majefty your felf first requir'd us to concern our selves in it, when the Quiet as well of our Neighbourhood as of our Re-publick depend to much upon it, and when other Affairs in which the Welfare of all Europe is contern'd, are judg'd nor to be altogether forreign to us nor to be unworthy of our Cares. And, without Offence to your Imperial Majeay or affirming too much to our selves be it said, perhaps the Af-fairs of your Imperial Majesty and of the Empire had look'd upon them as forceign and indifferent so us. That we did not exceed the Bounds of Moderation, appears evidently in that we only acted as Intercessors in this Election, and least we should prejudice any Person forbore to declare our selves till we plainly faw the greater Number of the Canons had resolv'd to give their Voices for the Bishop of Paderborn. And that we gave Intimation early enough, that we had put it out of our Power to favour the Bishop of Osnabrug on this Occasion, will appear from the Memorial presented to us by the Count de Goes the 1st of July past, in which he declares he had by his Letters acquainted your Important Mainly that had had lively along of helping perial Majesty that he had little Hope of helping the Bishop of Osnabrug by our Means: How therefore this can be reconcil'd with what is faid concerning our Silence, we can not easily comprehend. In the mean time, what Esteem we have for the Bishop of Osnabrug, and his Virtues, as well as the Merits of the House of Lorrain, we shall not fail to manifest hereaster, when a better Opportunity than this that has escap'd us shall offer. Besides, our Recommendation of the Bishop of Paderborn did not at all infringe the Liberty of the Chapter to choose the Bishop of Osnabrug; nor did we in the least oppose his Election, but the hard and un-accostom'd Method by which your Imperial Majesty's Ministers endeavour'd to exclude the Bishop of Paderborn, and to deprive the Chapter of their Right to choose him: Which Manner of Proceeding, especially against a well-deserving Prince of the Empire, cannot but feem hard, and inconfiftent with the Rights and Privileges of all Chapters, more particularly those of Germany, which provide that all their Elections should be free. As for the Bishop of Paderborn, we are persuaded that the sinister Opinion your Imperial Majesty seems to have entertain'd of him, is owing to the Suggestions of his Enemies; and trust, if your Imperial Majesty will call to Mind his steady Zeal for the common Cause, and peculiar Reverence for your Imperial Ma-jesty, you will restore him to your former Fa-your, and to the Part he had in your Assecti-on before he stood Candidate for the Bishoprick of Munster. Neither have we any Cause to doubt of his Concurrence to whatever may be judg'd advantagious to your Imperial Majesty, the Em-pire, and the common Cause; on the contrary we are fully convinced that the Dignity and Authoriey of your Imperial Majesty, far from being dithinish'd, will be increas'd by your Approbation of this Election, which is made, the not unanimously, yer lawfully and rightfully by the greater Number of the Canons. This will be a Proof of the Sinof the Canons. cerity of your Imperial Majesty's Inventions and of your Care to preserve and defend the Rights and Privileges of the Members of the Empire; that which nothing can more effectually chablish on a had not been in the Condition they now are, if we folid Foundation, the Glory, Dignity, and Authority of your Imperial Majesty, both in Germany and other Parts. As for the Interests of our Republick, we are of the fame Opinion with your Imperial Majesty, that they are always so closely united with yours, as not to be separated without Detriment to both: And we heartly wish, that as we are conscious to our selves, we have hitherto fincerely and constantly consulted the Advantage of your Imperial Majesty and the House of Austria, that as far as we were able and even beyond our Strength we have fought their Advancement, and that we have given such clear Proofs of our Zeal in this Particular as we prefume none can call in Question, so your Imperial Majesty would think fit to have some Regard to the Good and Welfare of our Republick: If we may ever expect this on any Occasion, we thall expect it from your Imperial We fet our Majefty's Equity and Goodness on this. Hear's fo much upon it, that if the Friendship we have the H mour to maintain with your Imperial Majefty, our Forwardness in expending the Lives and Fortunes of our Subjects to carry on the common Cause, and the good Offices we have done your Imperial Majesty and the House of Austria and are most willingly disposed to do hereaster, be of any Weight with your Imperial Majesty, by all these we intreat and conjure your Imperial Majesty not to be insteaded in this Affair, but graciously at our Request and Intercession to restore the Bahop of Paderborn to your former Favour, fuffer the Election made to take Effect without De-lay, and to procure the Pope's Confirmation of it. By this, your Imperial Majesty will not only easily obviate many Inconveniences and Troubles, and prevent Diffurbances in our Neighbourhood to the reat Damage of us and the Confederates, but will likewise more strongly engage us and all the Princes and States who are any way concern'd in the Quiet of the Circle of Westphalia, to your Interests. Wherefore we rest considertly assur'd, your Imperial Majesty will not refuse this to Equity, to Us, to our mutual Friendship, and to the Wessare and Tranquility of the Publick.
